The Erie timetable goes into effect on Saturday, September 27th. The New York train now leaving at 7:10 will return to its former schedule. This train is well patronized and its removal would be felt by a large number of people.

A man believed by the police to be John Hawkins, 68 years old, of Erie, Pa., committed suicide by jumping into the Niagara River from the lower steel arch bridge Monday afternoon. The bridge spans the whirlpool Rapids and is 200 feet above the water. Hawkins, who had been stopping at a hotel there, crossed the bridge to the Canadian side and shortly after 5 o'clock started for the American shore. A few minutes later two women, standing on the Canadian cliff, saw a man climb upon the railing on the north side of the bridge.

HONESDALE NOT ONLY TOWN BUSY.

The Gould Mills at Long Eddy, says the Sullivan County Democrat, have a large gang of men busily engaged in the manufacture of nearly half a million child's blackboard outfits such as are common at Christmas time. This is an order for one concern only. The process of manufacturing them will necessitate the handling of five million finished pieces.

Up until recent years this firm was extensively engaged in the manufacture of furniture, making cots a specialty. These they shipped in large numbers to the southern states. The scarcity of suitable timber had made imperative the change.

The Honesdale base ball team is anxious to play a picked team of County League stars next Saturday at Honesdale. Manager N. B. The Scranton All-Stars, one of the fastest teams in Scranton, have repeatedly defied the Wayne county bunch, but each time Manager Nick has passed up the match. The Stars issue another challenge to Honesdale for love or money.

There will be a game of ball here Saturday and the above team will probably be here although definite information cannot be given. Game at usual hour.

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE FOR HONESDALE?

What have you done to help Honesdale? Have you done your share in its up-building? Have you put your shoulder to the wheel, lent your co-operation in movements for this town's betterment, been a supporter whether asked to be or not? What has the village done for you? Isn't it a good place to live? Isn't it a good place to rear your children? Hasn't it been your home, isn't it your home now? What about the friends and acquaintances in Honesdale? Do you expect them to stay if the town languishes? If the town deteriorates, how will it affect your property? If this town goes to the "bow-woos" what will become of your friends and acquaintances? They'll move. If the population decreases, trade will decrease. If this town dies, who is responsible for its death? Why, those who earn their money here, harvest their crops here, raise their stock here but spend their money somewhere else. The money is needed here at home.

4,000 CHURCHES REPORT NO GAIN.

An arraignment of the "Tendencies of the Times" was contained in the report of the committee on narrative presented before the Northern Presbyterian Assembly. The report deprecates the "distressing loss of membership in many synods of the church." Nearly 4,000 churches during the last ecclesiastical year failed to secure a new member through confession of faith, according to the report.

Other features brought out were that some of the churches most intelligent and influential members spend the Sabbath on the golf links instead of attending divine worship; that the extent and boldness of the white slave traffic has become appalling, even extending, the report declares, into Sabbath schools and Christian Endeavor societies.

W. H. Houston, of Columbus, O., secretary of the permanent committee on vacancy and supply, declared the problem of securing pastors was one of the most distressing of every nation and to appropriate additional finances with which to assist the work of the vacancy and supply committee.—Kansas City Post.

While hunting groundhogs on Tuesday near Norristown, William Hambrecht was shot on the head by Howard Wilson, of 510 Cherry street, who was his companion on the hunting trip. Hambrecht wore a dark gray cap and when he stuck his head out from behind a stump of a tree Wilson thought it was a groundhog.

Death of Allen C. Stewart.

Allen C. Stewart, formerly of Honesdale, but late postmaster at Endicott, passed away at the home of his son in Niagara Falls, on Monday, September 1. His death came suddenly, although following a long period of sickness and ill health. He was taken about six months ago with a severe attack of hiccoughs and his life was despaired of at that time, but he rallied and again became able to be about and assume his duties, but the severe strain of his sickness undermined his system to such an extent that he was never in good health afterward. His fortitude and cheerfulness during this trying period bespoke the large nature of the man. His death was due to heart failure following the weakening of his system by the prolonged strain.

His genial nature and innate uprightness and honesty and the integrity of the man endeared him to the hearts of all who knew him. Coming to Endicott when the village was in its infancy, he became foreman in the factory of Endicott, Johnson & Company, later going into partnership with D. C. Morgan, under the name of Stewart & Morgan, in the real estate business. Four years ago when the matter of selecting a postmaster at Endicott came up, the large worth of the man made him the natural candidate, and he was appointed to the position. His administration has been conducted in a true and businesslike manner and he has always worked for the best interests of his home town. To his good efforts Endicott owes her free delivery system.

Endicott feels that she has sustained a loss that can never be replaced. He is survived by his wife and one son, Allen T. Stewart, an attorney in Niagara Falls. He was 65 years of age and prominent in Masonic circles. The burial was held in Niagara Falls.—Lester-Endicott Record.

James Oaks of this place, a stepson of the deceased, and the former's brother, James, Jr., of Endicott, attended the funeral of Mr. Stewart.

D. & H. AGENTS' OUTING A SUCCESS.

The fifth annual outing of the Delaware and Hudson agents and officials of the transportation and traffic departments, which was held at Bluff Point, N. Y., in the Hotel Champlain, which just closed, was the most successful from all standpoints ever held by the agents. Topics touching on the improvements of the traffic and transportation departments were discussed.

The chief speakers were: C. S. Sims, vice-president and general manager; E. J. Brenner, agent, Wilkes-Barre; W. H. Williams, third vice-president; W. J. Mullin, general traffic manager, and A. A. Heard, general passenger agent. Their talks were well received. President L. F. Loree was unable to be present on account of being on a European tour.
